Dear Jackie,

I hope you have a very good ~~first~~ ^{time} during your high-school days. You deserve it. I also hope you and I can go places and do many things together as we have done so far. We have had many good times at nights and in the day. Spending the night with each other and having P. I. parties. This beautiful high-school needs girls like you to keep it going. As you are new and luck and happiness will ~~with~~ come your way. Maybe you can be as popular and well liked as some of the seniors of this year.

THE LARENIM and...

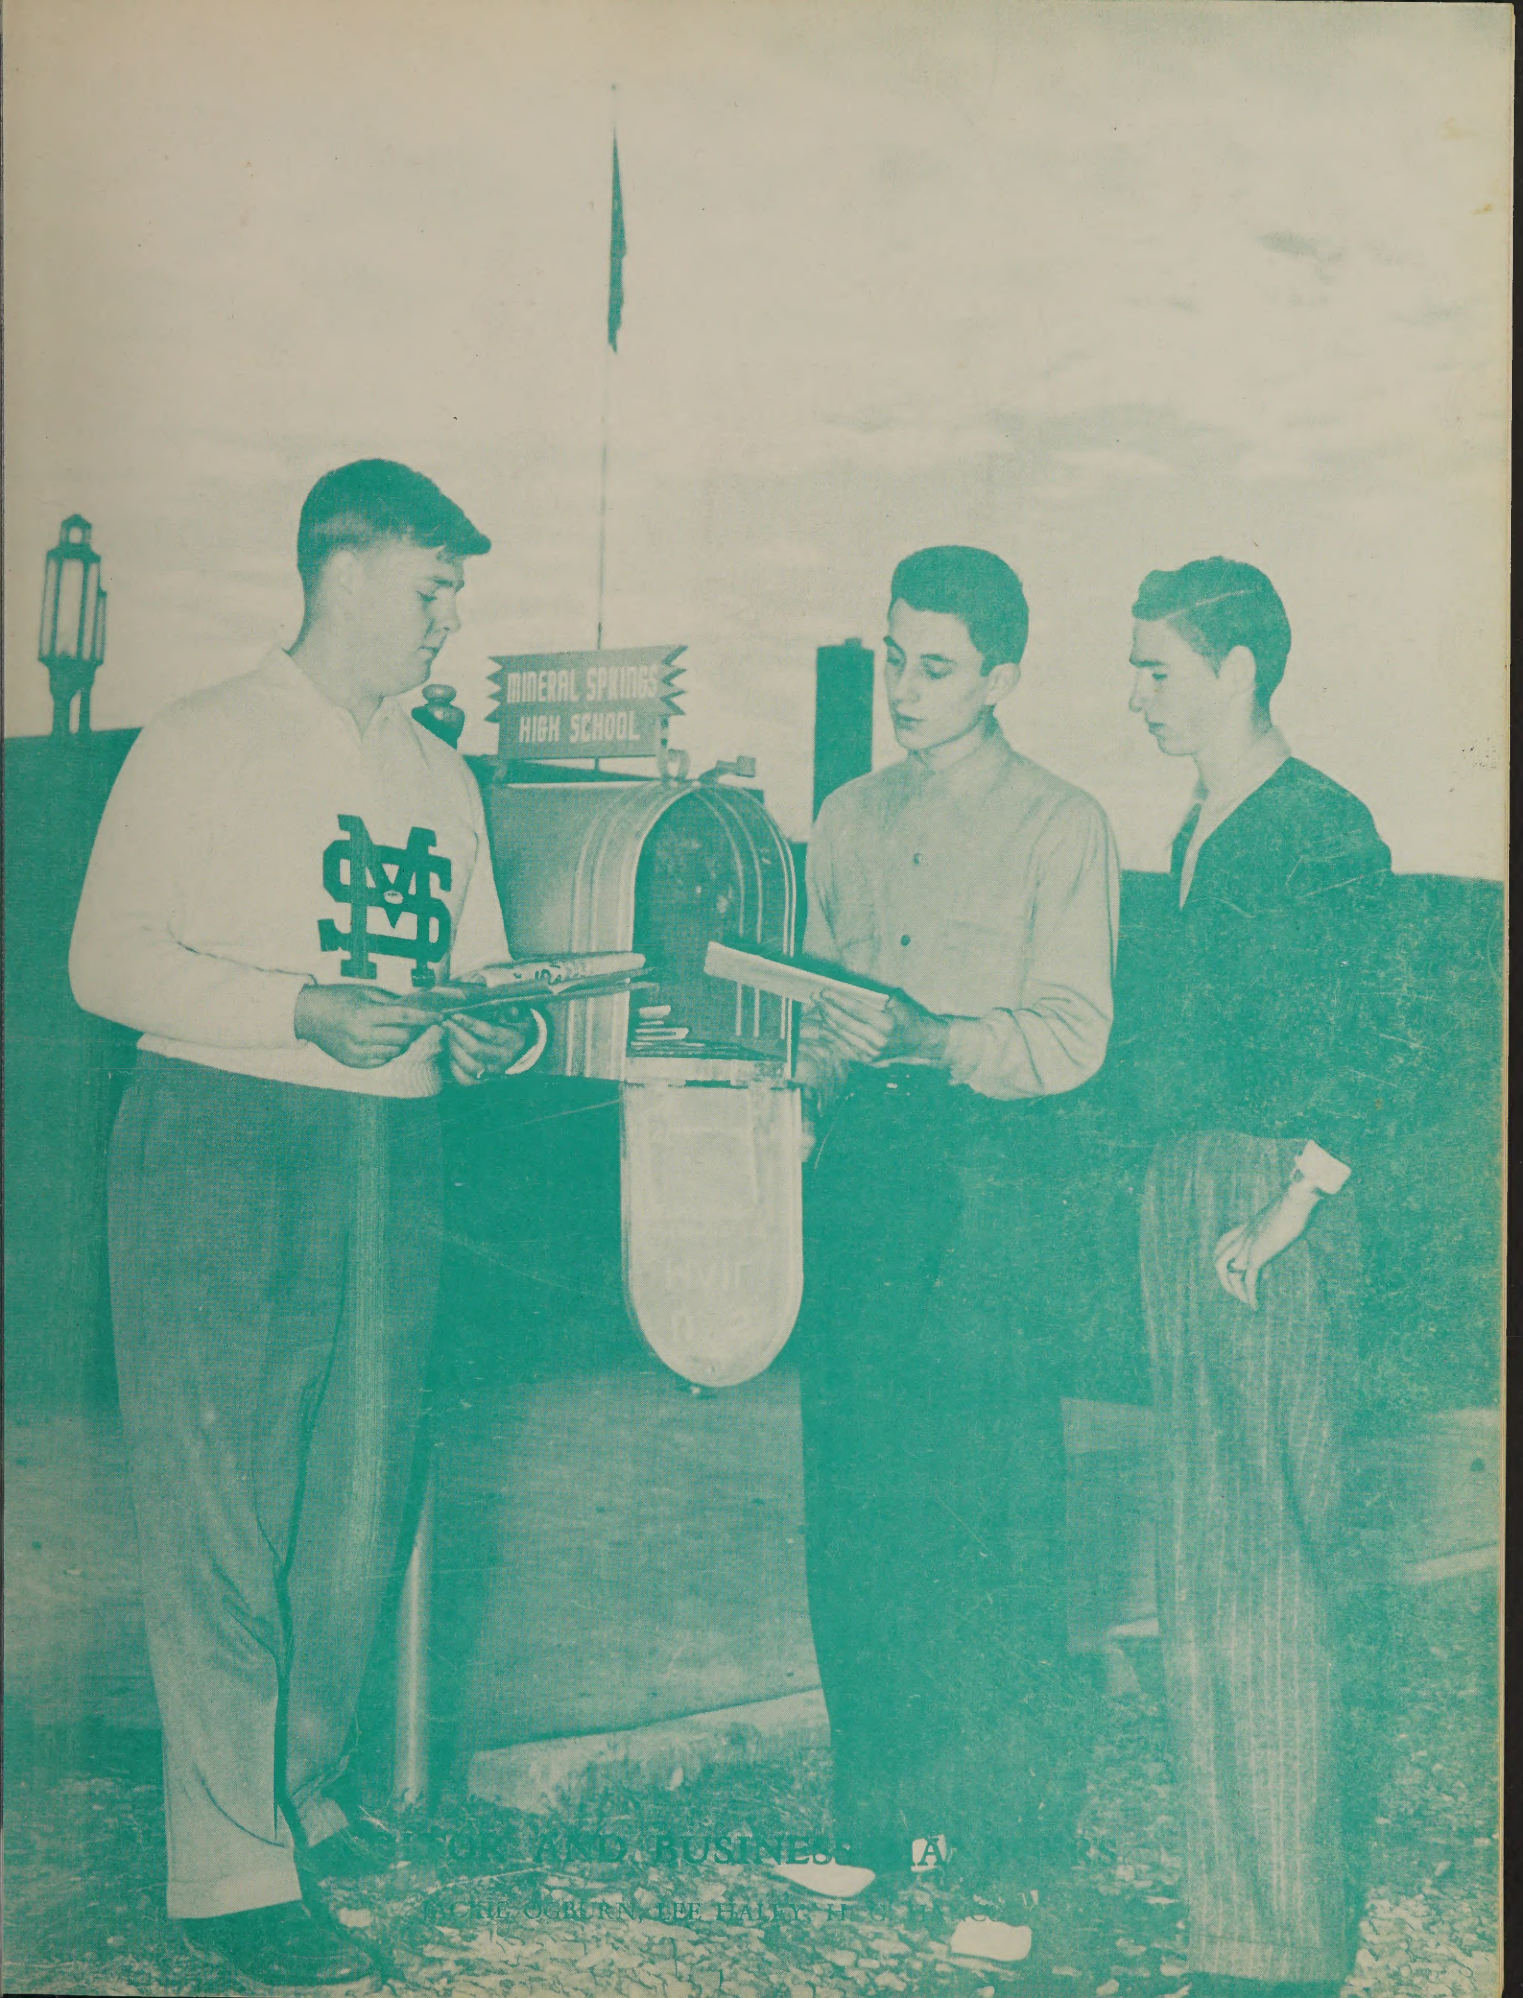

MINERAL SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

Here it is—the 1951 volume of the Larenim. When time has made the vivid scenes of school days grow dim, and years have almost erased from the mind those happy, eventful times, you may take this volume from the shelf and recall, as you turn the pages, those school days spent at Mineral Springs.

CLASS POEM

The time has come for us to leave these halls;
Hallowed with love and warm memories.
It is the reaching of a goal for which we long have striven,
And with eager hearts we strive to reach forth
into the world and its glories.
Yet, even as our dreams are realized,
We shall be sad with regret at leaving
The teachers who counseled and relayed to us
their knowledge,
The students who loved and shared with us
our joys,
And this school where we've played and worked many hours.
These thoughts we have of you ere we depart.
Tho a new life begins and our school days be past,
We'll remember you, Mineral Springs, always as best.

MARTHA KELLEY

CLASS SONG

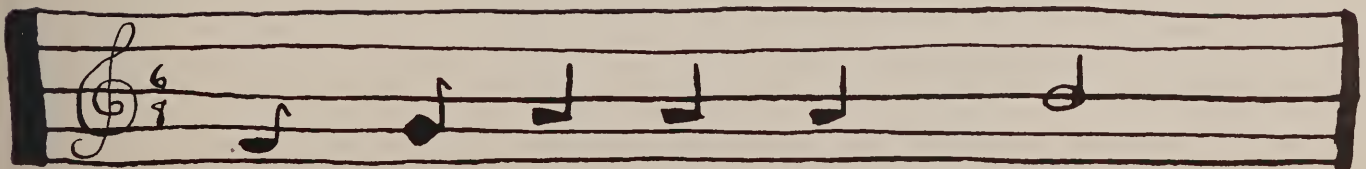

"Remembrance At Parting"

Words and Music by Elizabeth Whitworth

As our school years have ended
And we now bid farewell;
Let us stop—and look back slowly
To those days that were so swell.
There were teachers who taught us
With patience and heed,
Some more with guidance
Toward a life we should lead . . .

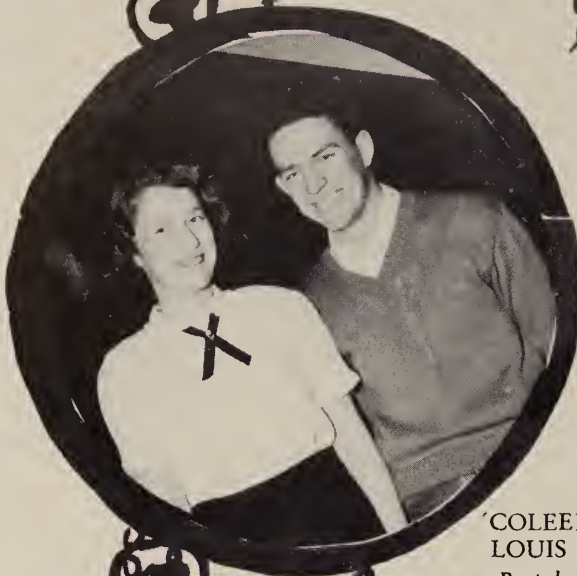

We must never forget
The days gone by;
Our friends, our folks,
The songs, and jokes,
Are stilled within our minds.
The thought still remains
And never shall depart
Of the love that is chained
To our hearts.

Our trail is winding
The sun is sinking fast,
Beyond the shadows
The moon returns at last.
So, let's work on and on
'Til a new day shall dawn,
Past those wonderful days that are gone . . .

And we now bid fare----well;

CLASS HISTORY

One sultry fall morning, a-jumble of students from Mineral Springs No. 1, Mineral Springs No. 2 and White Rock emerged from buses at the "barracks" which were to be our "homes" for six hours each day. Friends were separated and soon after, classes were started with everyone literally, in a "stew." Thus, we, the Freshmen of 1947, began our high school careers.

After a joyous summer vacation, we returned to our classes with renewed enthusiasm because our new school was soon to be finished.

One drizzly day in October, 1948, we piled into buses and made the short trip to the new building. Arriving in the gymnasium, we were grouped with our teachers and taken to our classrooms. Exclamations of "oh" and "ah" filled the long halls as students viewed the full-length lockers, the huge biology lab, the home economic lab, and shop. Oh, yes, Mr. Higgins' closet was the center of great excitement.

As our minds wander back, we find ourselves juniors. Hustling around putting finishing touches to the Junior-Senior Banquet, attending the class meeting which proved to be filled with enthusiasm, and getting our class rings, which were our pride and joy, all helped to make it a tremendously busy year. The students with dramatic talents had an opportunity to present themselves in the junior play, "The Man In The Green Shirt." Next came graduation for the seniors of the class of 1950, and this year the junior marshals and ushers were chosen by their grades. Marshals were Barbara Greene, Lee Haley, Monteze East, and Sarah East as chief. Ushers were Dorothy Caldwell, Betty Fishel, H. G. Hancock, Nancy Frye and Wilma Foster.

After another short vacation, we returned as seniors. Anticipating a year of "ice cream and cake," we were greatly disappointed to find that we had an even worse headache than before. Class officers for the year elected by secret ballot were Louis Rogers, President; C. L. Jackson, Vice-President; Dorothy Cardwell, Secretary; and Dick Mitchell, Treasurer. This year we had a very successful football season with Barbara Greene as the football queen. Also, we visited the different industrial plants here in the city. First, all seniors climbed into buses and visited Reynolds Tobacco Company. There, we were given souvenirs of cigarettes, pencils and smoking tobacco. Two weeks later, nine of us visited Wachovia Bank. In January we visited Hanes Hosiery Mills. Being able to take only sixty in all, many of the ones left felt greatly disappointed. Seniors getting married were Jane Ayers, Imogene Beshears, Eva Lee Grubbs, Hubert and Colleen Ward, Glenn Walker, Daphne Collins, Betty Spainhour, Jean Bumgardner and Jo Ann Neal. Several others have sparkling diamonds.

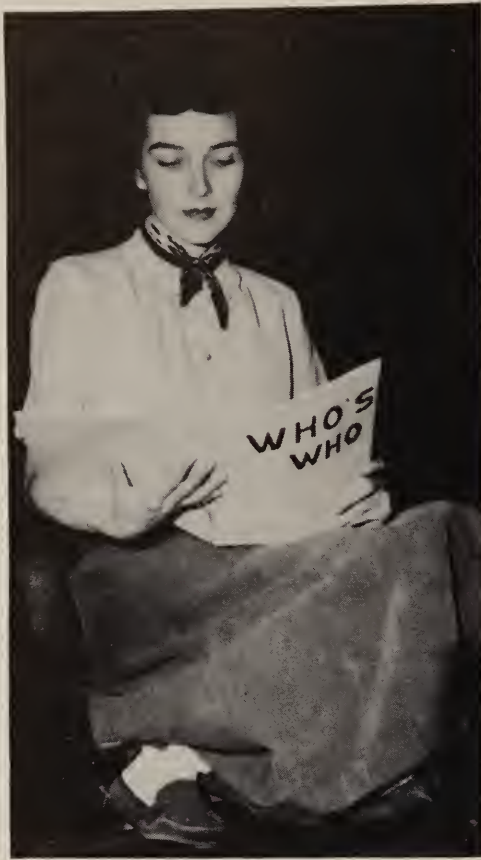

So ends the muddled but joyous history of the Senior Class of 1950-1951.

BETTY FISHEL

CLASS PROPHECY

by

BARBARA BAUGUESS

As I, Barbara Bauguess, in the year 1961, prepare to dictate the list for the International "Who's Who?" to Sarah East and G. R. Sheek, star reporters, these prominent citizens are listed on the "How Could It Have Happened?" page.

Housewives, Joan Neal and Jane Ayers have no envy of Margaret Roberts and Betty Fishel, who have quit looking for the ideal man and started looking for a husband.

Monteze East, famous giggle teacher, is tutoring Lucille Cole, Betty Clark, Barbara Boles and Dorothy Cardwell, since beforehand they never understood the subject.

Wade Perrel, Glenn Walker, and Kenneth Elliott, teamed together and are manufacturing "Chokeum Little Tonsil Pills."

Bobby Edwards and Tommy Collins, determined to get an education, are studying under Professors Jimmy Smith and Gene Walker at UNC.

Graham Henry, Bill Humphrey, T. H. Smoot and Richard Stafford have formed a gratifying quartet, which is sweeping the nation. Their piano accompanist is Elizabeth Whitworth.

Arthur Gilbert and his Lonesome Playboy Mountaineers, Frank Flynn, Jack McGee and Kelly Brown, former amusers at the "Double Ward" (Collen and Hubert) Koffee Kup, are handing out sales chat and music for Ed Harris, who says, and I quote, "Shore would like to be senator of N. C."

Madeline Williams, Patsy Walker, Barbara Greene and Nancy Frye are nursing at St. Johns Hopkins Hospital.

In New York City, Barbara Hicks and Mary Jo Campbell have a French Perfume Salon, with Mesdames Betty Rhoades and Martha Kelly serving on the French Poodle Counters.

America's favorite bandleader, Russell Reid, is playing at the ultra modern La Raza Rendezvous, owned by Norman Holder and Jim Gross. Featured nightly is an exotic ballet by Virginia Weir, Ellen Throckmorton, June Marshall and Nancy Elliott. That crooner boy, Ralph Wallace, simply rocks the entire crowd with his latest hit, "Never Trust A Dream." Chorus cuties include Florence Southern, Mary Henri Newman, Janet Amos, Mary Louise Whicker and Reba Winfrey.

Jack Tilton, Ralph Branscomb and Harry Welch are masculine models for "A Door Me" magazine.

Larry Cooke is right hand man to Freeman Lowe, manager of the "Parking Lankies."

In Chicago, Marygold Garden proudly presents Jackie Ogburn, wrestling maniac, better known as "Strangler." His most feared opponent is Clyde Womble. With Ray Lambert as referee, C. L. Jackson as announcer, Kenneth Davis and Talmadge Boger on the TV cameras, and a constant scream of "Peanuts" from Edgar Tesh, the Mayor Lee Haley rates this teamwork on a par with any he has seen in years.

Ralph Rash, Louis Rogers and Bryson Ibrahim, atomic lab energetics have invented a duper speed plane for stunt flying and Charles McGee. Jimmy Wiles is the co-pilot of this passenger plane. Sue Pressley is the only hostess who will take the risk.

In California, Eleanor Cofer, Betty Jarvis, and Jo Ann Speaks model bathing suits that are designed by Peggie Check of Paris and made in the Mink Stink Factory, operated by Eva Lee Grubbs and Betty Spainhour.

Susie Gibson co-stars with that multi-millionaire, Jay Trivette in "This World Is Too Much For Us." Juanita Myers, Robert Wilson and Travis Tuttle are also in the cast.

As reported by her secretary, Alease Cooke, film actress Ann Wall has a newly erected glass home designed by the baritone of opera, Kenneth Grubbs, and constructed by Harold Brooks.

Betty Wilson, Lokeel Mabe, Jean Furches and Doris Kiger are doing acrobatic performances in the Dalton and Talley Dish Rag Circus.

And if anybody is still left wandering, Peggy Brown, Mary Watson and Helen Flynt cordially invite all males to their Lonely Hearts and Empty Arms Club.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of M. S. H. S., being of sound mind and body do hereby leave our most treasured possessions, loyalty, and friendship to the faculty. Also these sentimental memories we leave to our fellow students.

I, G. R. Sheek, leave my excess height to Charles Hutchins, hoping he will put it to good use.

I, Patsy Ruth Walker, will my spot on the stage every Friday morning to Peggy Long.

I, Talmadge Boger, leave my quiet ways to Joe Bill Allred.

I, Sara Elizabeth East, leave my ability to make straight A's to Betty Walsh.

I, Peggie Shannon Cheek, leave my journalistic ability to Florence East.

I, Bobby Edwards, leave my ability to be true to one girl to Wayne Henley.

I, Wilma Gray Foster, will to Wilma Sheek my basketball uniform, hoping she will grow to fill it by next year.

I, Bryson Ibrahim, leave my ability to manage the football team and take care of Joe Saylor to Kenneth Kirby.

I, Jean Furches Bumgardner, leave my position as band secretary to anyone who likes to work.

I, Eva Lee Lyons Grubbs, leave my love for art class to Delano Ann Crews.

I, Jacqueline Beshears Reid, leave all my old shorthand notes to my sister Earline.

I, Margaret Anne Roberts, upon request, leave my presidency of the Girls' Monogram Club to my esteemed cousin, Gilbert Roberts.

I, Travis Edwin Tuttle, will my left-over ink to Mrs. Ben White.

I, Gary Tally, leave my right guard position on the bench to Joe Marshall.

I, Harry Lee Welch, leave many girls with broken hearts at M. S.

We, Alcase Cooke, Mary Louise Whicker, Reba Winfrey, and Peggy Brown, leave our lasting friendship to Nancy Barnes, Peggy Stout, Betty Jo Palmer, and Betty Lou Walker.

I, Ralph Wallace, leave my bashfulness to J. W. Plemmons.

We, Jack Tilton and Gene Walker, leave our positions as captains of the football team to Joe Saylor, R. E. Cummings and David Monk, since they were elected anyway.

I, Virginia May Weir, leave my position as Mr. Poland's "secretary" to Lucille Grubbs.

I, Barbara Ann Hicks, will to Nancy Smitherman my love for sailors.

I, Nancy Gray Frye, leave my intelligence to Mary Alice Comer.

I, Mary Jo Campbell, will my Junior Junction card to Shirley Stender.

I, Charles McGee, leave my blonde locks to Donald Larrimore.

I, Ralph Edmond Branscomb, leave my Key Club presidency to Ronnie Hall.

I, Martha O'Conner Kelly, leave my oratorical ability to Roy Walker.

I, Nola Anne Wall, leave my love for Miss Langley to Martha Simmons.

I, Russell Reid, leave to Jimmy Polk my undying love for the band.

We, Dorothy Lee Cardwell and Betty Ann Clarke, leave our version of "Temptation" to Pat Matthews, to increase his knowledge of "good music."

I, Jo Ann Speaks, leave my D. E. Club membership to my brother, Doug.

I, Eleanor Cofer, leave my cheerleading uniform to Shirley Belton.

This is a large, dense collage of black and white photographs, likely from a 1940s high school yearbook. The photos are arranged in a non-linear, overlapping fashion. The subjects are primarily young men and women, captured in various social and personal moments. Some photos show individuals in formal attire, while others are more candid. The settings include indoor spaces like classrooms or hallways, outdoor areas like lawns or gardens, and vehicles. The collage is a visual representation of student life and social interactions during that era.
